

Abstract. Generic properties of classes of convex functions from strictly to strongly convex have been studied by various authors, where we say a set is generic when it contains a dense  $G_\delta$ -set. This talk will discuss some analogous results for certain classes maximal monotone operators that are related to uniformly monotone operators.